

SHEBOYGAN COUNTY RESOLUTION NO. 24 (2018/19)

Re: Entering into Agreement with City of Plymouth for Administration of Multipurpose Trail Along the Mullet River Corridor

WHEREAS, the City of Plymouth and Sheboygan County wish to construct a non-motorized trail and bridge in the Mullet River Area corridor from Frederick Street north to South Milwaukee Street/State Highway 67 in the City of Plymouth (the "Project") providing a designated area for pedestrians and bicyclists, and

WHEREAS, the Project will promote walking and biking as an active transportation choice and encourage recreational activity, thereby providing direct health, economic, and air quality benefits to our community; and

WHEREAS, it is understood that the Project is part of a larger project that will also provide a multi-use non-motorized trail connection to the existing Old Plank Road Trail from the Plymouth Intergenerational Center (Generations Segment); and

WHEREAS, Sheboygan County is able to contribute $450,000.00 in Wisconsin Department of Transportation Non-motorized Transportation Pilot Program grant funds, with the balance of the cost of the Project coming from the City of Plymouth, and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to reduce the division of labor and maintenance agreement between the City and the County from an oral understanding to a formal intergovernmental cooperative agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Sheboygan County Board authorizes and directs the Planning Director and County Administrator to negotiate and to sign an agreement with the City of Plymouth consistent with the understandings previously agreed to with the City.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of December, 2018.
