

You are invited!

Please join us for the official dedication and grand opening of the

Plastics Engineering Company Center for Engineering Studies

Thursday, October 1, 2015

4:30–6:30 p.m., UW-Sheboygan*

AGENDA

WELCOME

Dr. Jacquelyn Joseph-Silverstein

UW-Sheboygan Dean and CEO

SPEAKERS

Adam Payne

Sheboygan County Administrator

Steve Wildeck

UW Colleges/UW Extension Vice Chancellor for Administration and Finance

Dr. Molly Gribb

UW-Platteville Dean of the College of Engineering, Mathematics and Science

Scott Hiles

UW-Platteville/UW-Sheboygan Collaborative Degree Program Graduate

Dr. Tom Ries

UW-Sheboygan Foundation President

Mike Brotz

Plastics Engineering Company President and CEO

RIBBON CUTTING

RECEPTION, TOURS & DEMONSTRATIONS

(5–6:30 p.m.)

Refreshments (Lobby area outside Room 6001, Lower Level, Brotz Science Building)

Lab/Classroom Tours

Engineering Equipment Demonstrations

Student Project Displays

* Please park in the East Parking Lot and gather in the lower level of the Brotz Science Building near the interior doorway to the new building. You may use the stairwell in the back of the Brotz building or the elevator, both are accessible via the front entrance to the Brotz Science Building.

Plastics Engineering Company Center for Engineering Studies

Made possible through the ongoing support of Sheboygan County taxpayers and the Sheboygan County Board of Supervisors, a naming rights gift from the Plastics Engineering Company and the Frank G. and Frieda K. Brotz Family Foundation, the generous support of Curt G. Joa, Inc., and the fundraising efforts of the University of Wisconsin-Sheboygan Foundation, Inc.

Thank You!

A Campus of the University of Wisconsin Colleges

sheboygan.uwc.edu